

One Card, One Expiration Notice

The Division of EMS is aware of a technical error with some of the new certification cards that were recently sent out as part of the one card, one expiration initiative. Our Information Technology department has discovered the error and is currently working to resolve it. Once this is resolved we will reissue the affected cards. Thank you for your patience during this period.