Ohio Department of Public Safety Statement on Inspector General Report

(COLUMBUS) – The Ohio Department of Public Safety today released the following statement (attributable to spokesperson Lindsay Komlanc) regarding the Inspector General’s report on the departments of Administrative Services, Public Safety, Rehabilitation and Correction and oversight of the prison intern program at the residence and a January conveyance case:

“The Department will carefully and thoroughly review the report and, working in coordination with the departments of Rehabilitation and Corrections and Administrative Services, take any appropriate action regarding the recommendations.”
