Clarification: Wapakoneta License Bureau Remains Open to Public

COLUMBUS - Recent news involving the relocation of the Wapakoneta Exam Station has caused some confusion for the residents of Auglaize and surrounding counties.

The Wapakoneta Exam station has relocated to the Wapakoneta Highway Patrol Post at 15472 Wapak-Fisher Rd and will begin testing on Tuesdays and Wednesdays starting May 10th.

The Wapakoneta License Bureau and Auglaize County Title Department is still located at 604 S. Blackhoof St in Wapakoneta.

To clarify, below are descriptions of each location and their functions:

WAPAKONETA EXAM STATION:

The Exam Station is where individuals go for testing to obtain a driving permit, motorcycle permit, or CDL permit or take a driving test to obtain a drivers license or motorcycle endorsement.

WAPAKONETA LICENSE BUREAU:

The License Bureau issues driving permits, motorcycle permits, CDL permits, driver license, state identification cards and vehicle registrations.

Other services offered at this specific location are BCI/FBI background checks, Passport photos, hunting license, fishing license, watercraft license, and notary service.

AUGLAIZE COUNTY TITLE DEPARTMENT:

The Title Department main function, but not limited to, is issuing vehicle titles.
