

Ohio State Highway Patrol

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release: August 13, 2013
Contact: Lt. Jerad Sutton (440)969-1156

Ohio Investigative Unit and Ashtabula Patrol Post to offer Alcohol Server Knowledge Training

The Ohio Investigative Unit, The Ohio State Highway Patrol, and Ashtabula County Safe Communities have teamed up and are inviting Alcohol permit holders and servers to a FREE program offered by the state called “ASK”, Alcohol Server Knowledge. This program is designed for the assistance of permit holders, but more specifically the waiter(s), bartenders, barmaids, and clerks of all liquor establishments. We will be hosting two training sessions in Ashtabula County, the times and locations are listed below:

When: Wednesday August 21, 2013, at 2:00 PM

Where: ODOT Ashtabula 492 Seven Hills Rd. Ashtabula, Ohio 44004

When: Wednesday August 21, 2013, at 6:00 PM

Where: Rome Fire 3162 US 6 Rome, Ohio 44085

The focus of the training is to discuss Ohio specific liquor laws as well as criminal and civil liabilities. Other topics of discussion would be, Sales of alcohol to an intoxicated persons, Sunday sales, After hours sales, Obstruction, Sale of alcohol to minors, ladies nights and drink specials, OVI related crashes, along with gambling and drug violations.

Those who attend will receive a certificate of completion from the State of Ohio.

If you are interested in this training please contact Sandy Pulsifer at (216) 387-9392 or you can E-mail me at: jsutton@dps.state.oh.us

#2013-19#