

Reinstate my Fire Service certification?

If you are expired less than 6 months, you will need to pass the state examination at your level of certification. Between 6 and 18 months, you must complete 18 hours of continuing education in addition to passing the state examination. You must pass the examination with a 70% or better within 3 attempts. After 18 months you must repeat the course of training.