

Basic Rider Course Crossword Puzzle Clues

Across

- 4 The _____ brake lever is in front of the right footrest and operates the rear brake. PG-16
- 5 Use the Motorcycle horn to gain attention but don't _____ on it. PG 26
- 6 Lower gears are used for _____ speeds. PG-22
- 8 The intended function of a helmet is to protect the head and brain from_____. PG-10
- 10 The load triangle is the _____ formed within the top of your read and the two axles. PG-41
- 12 You change gears to match engine speed with _____ speed. PG-22
- 14 The primary control that controls engine speed. PG-16
- 16 In the SEE strategy the last "E" stands for_____. PG-9
- 18 Scratches on the face shield can refract light and _____ vision. P-12
- 20 Rise slightly off the seat before reaching an _____. PG-34
- 21 The three positions of most fuel supply valves include on, off and _____. PG-18
- 22 Protective gear can help a rider be more _____. PG-14
- 24 A full-face helmet gives the _____ protection since it covers the head & face. PG-11
- 26 During the "Execute" phase of "SEE" there are three action steps: adjust speed, adjust position and _____ your intentions. PG-30
- 28 In a T-CLOCS inspection the second "C" stands for _____. PG-14
- 30 The three positions of most ignition switches are: On, Off and _____. PG-18
- 32 The "E" in FINE-C stands for _____ cut-off switch. PG-19
- 34 A pre-ride _____ helps assure a trouble free ride. PG-14
- 36 Protective gear has several purposes, one of which is to provide _____. PG-10
- 39 Motorcycles designed for use on public streets and highways. PG-3
- 41 A condition of subnormal body temperature which causes loss of concentration, slowed reactions and loss of smooth precise muscle movement. PG-13
- 42 The fourth step in turning a motorcycle is to _____. PG-21
- 43 In slow, tight turns like a U-turn in a parking lot, a _____ technique is used. PG-21
- 45 In a crash, good quality protective gear may prevent or _____ injury. PG-13
- 47 Motorcycles leave the rider more vulnerable in a crash because of less _____. PG-5
- 48 In a T-CLOCS inspection the first "C" stands for _____. PG-14
- 49 The _____ is used to start a motorcycle when it is cold. PG-18
- 51 Search means to scan _____ for potential factors and hazards. PG-28
- 54 Every rider and passenger should wear sturdy over-the-ankle _____. PG-10
- 55 One way to think about the causes of crashes is to imagine a chain of _____. PG-7
- 56 Head injuries account for the _____ of motorcycle fatalities. PG-11
- 57 A "good" motorcyclist reduces factors that lead to problems by _____ a strategy.
- 58 The _____ supply valve controls the flow of gasoline to the engine. PG-18
- 59 FINE C is a procedure used to _____ the engine of a motorcycle.
- 60 Lane position allows for as much space cushion as traffic permits and allows for a margin of _____. PG-25
- 62 Face shields should be securely _____ to the helmet. PG-12
- 63 Full-fingered gloves protect the hands from wind, sun, _____ and cold. PG-12
- 64 The friction _____ is that area of the clutch lever that controls power to the rear wheel. PG-20
- 65 The "N" in FINE C stands for _____. PG-19
- 66 The wrist should be positioned _____ on the throttle. PG-20

Basic Rider Course Crossword Puzzle Clues

Down

- 1 The _____ brake provides around 70% of the stopping power for a motorcycle. PG-23
- 2 The _____ brake lever is in front of the right handgrip and operated with the right hand. PG-16
- 3 Ordinary glasses or sunglasses do not offer sufficient _____ protection. PG-11
- 7 _____ helps you perceive the hazards ahead. PG-27
- 8 _____ brakes are when the application of the rear brake will cause some application of the front brake. PG-37
- 9 Sturdy boots can prevent _____ from hot exhaust pipes. PG-12
- 10 When _____, keep the motorcycle lean independent of body lean. PG-39
- 11 The two second following distance is considered to be a _____ distance when conditions are ideal. PG-27
- 13 In the SEE strategy the "S" stands for _____. PG-9
- 15 Safety in traffic is a responsibility shared by _____. PG-15
- 17 The third step in turning a motorcycle is to _____. PG-21
- 19 The _____ lever connects power from the engine to the rear wheel. PG-16
- 23 The surface is most _____ during the first few minutes of rain. PG-39
- 25 Motorcycles designed for use on the street or off-highway are called _____ purpose. PG-3
- 27 The greatest potential for a conflict between a motorcycle and other traffic is at _____. PG-30
- 29 The "I" in FINE-C stands for _____. PG-19
- 31 When the total stopping distance exceeds the sight distance, the cyclist is said to be _____ the headlight. PG-36
- 33 Higher gears are used for _____ speeds. PG-22
- 35 The second step in turning a motorcycle is to _____. PG-21
- 37 Good posture includes keeping the back straight and the head and eyes _____. PG-20
- 38 A "good" motorcyclist has the desire and motivation to reduce _____. PG-8
- 40 Above all, a motorcyclist and passenger should wear a U. S. Department of Transportation (DOT) approved _____. PG-10
- 43 On the street, situations change _____, and sometimes abruptly. PG-25
- 44 The _____ indicates engine speed. PG-18
- 46 The _____ - lever shifts the gears on a motorcycle. PG-16
- 47 One of the three components of stopping distance is _____ distance. PG-27
- 50 Both brakes should be _____ at the same time when stopping. PG-23
- 52 A fundamental trait of all good riders is that they have a _____. PG-8
- 53 In the SEE strategy, the middle "E" stands for _____. PG-9
- 58 A motorcycle rider that crashes without a helmet is _____ times more likely to have serious head injuries. PG-11
- 60 The first step in turning a motorcycle is to _____. PG-21
- 61 Safe riding is more of a skill of the eyes and mind than of the hands and _____. PG-28