Reporting Ohio's Habitual DUI Offenders

Keep the Holidays Special

It's simple. If you drink and drive, you lose. Law enforcement will be working for you this holiday season...to protect you from theft, burglary, assault and terrorism. Yet they can't do it alone. Impaired driving is not a harmless traffic offense. Don't be fooled. Impaired driving is one of the most often committed crimes, randomly killing someone every 30 minutes, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). That means you, your family or friends may become an innocent victim.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol and local law enforcement, as part of the You Drink & Drive. You Lose. National Mobilization, will be working to protect everyone from impaired drivers during this busy time of year. From December 20, 2002, to January 5, 2003, local and state officials will be out in full force. They will be conducting sobriety checkpoints and doing saturation patrols throughout local areas.

Program-to-Date Totals

Hot Sheet New Plate

Ohioans who order a Bald Eagle license plate will receive the newly redesigned Bald Eagle plate, which features both our national bird and the American flag. The original plate featured only the bald eagle. Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV), Rep. Robert Latta and the Ohio Department of Natural Resources (ODNR) worked together to create the new plate design.

Last year, after the attacks on the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and also on United Flight 93, Rep. Latta approached the BMV to change the design of the plates. "The new Bald Eagle plate design brings together two prominent symbols of America: the flag and the eagle," said BMV Registrar Frank Caltrider. "We are proud to be a part of this cause."

Since September 11, 2001, interest in the Bald Eagle license plate increased. In September 2001, the BMV sold 774 Bald Eagle plates. In October 2001, the BMV sold 1,642 Bald Eagle plates. For the nine months the license plate was available for the public in 1999, 2,985 were sold. In 2000, 8,446 plates were sold. In 2001, 11,548 Bald Eagle Plates were sold.
